REPORT BACKS:

Abolish ICE: Thursday, September 24th South Ferry

About 30 Attendees with a few others joining in during the demonstration. Because it was just a few days after Breonna Taylor's exoneration it was hard to be in the right headspace for immigration. A few hecklers passing by, but demonstrators were able to interact with them and explain that challenging people to consider a vote for Trump is voting for this. So still is very much relevant.

Say Their Names Every Friday at 5pm 96th and Broadway

New "Stop Killing Black People Banner" and also seeking a louder PA system so folks outside the demonstration can hear the names and possibly come observe or participate. The additional speaker system that has been added has been very helpful too!

Make Billionaires Pay Outside Bloomberg's Mansion on 79th st.

Action to demand a Green New Deal in NYC. An event we endorsed with The DSA. Very inspiring event and a very productive one as well. Seems to be making waves and could ignite some changes in the future.

Justice For Briana at Camden Plaza Sunday, September 27th

Family and food fair. 4 RaR members showed up, but felt it was a little too warm of an event to hold banners and harsh photos with families and children present. The nature of the event came as surprise and wasn't anticipated to be that kind of event. Was a miscommunication, and was actually intended for an event that took place that night before.

Zoom call to talk about what to do if Trump refuses to leave.

March For The Dead: Virtual Sunday, October 18th

A way to participate safely from home. Make videos and hashtag to spread the message. All how to's will be included at this event. Also, a great way to continue this even and amplify people's voices.

Deep Canvassing and Quick Training:

<https://www.ctctogether.org> This one is more training on storytelling and listening to voters as well.

Monitoring Voter Intimidation Wednesday, September 30th, 7 pm Training:

Web developers are generating a website to identify voter fraud. If something questionable is reported it will be investigated and listed on this website. We want to do a big social media push so everyone can know this website exists. Site going live at the end of the week. Asking for volunteers to help find misinformation posted on the site. 12-hour shifts Monday-Friday up until the week before election day then Saturdays will be included as well.

Students For Justice Internships

Received and generous donation and are now able to do paid interns $25 an hour! 136 interns currently but received over 400 applications. 2000 hours for voter outreach up until the election! Writing postcards, phone banking, participating in "See Something, Say Something" all in an effort to get the word out!

DISCUSSION:

Supreme Court Potential Demonstrations

Big push on October 12th. Possibly could organize a caravan?

Supreme Court Voter is a great way to get involved. They also have a call every Monday at 5:30

Post Office Working Group:

Enemies of the Post Office didn't really take off the way we expected. But everyone did SUCH an amazing job and will be an incredible resource of information for the future.

No More Years October 22nd Rockefeller Center:

On the same day as the second debate. Time proposal? Earlier is better, so we have time to do a press conference and also line up speakers. Earlier also gives us a chance to roll out photos on social media before the debate that evening.

FINANCE: $20,300

NON RAR ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Housing Justice For All Rally at Foley Square Thursday October 1st 11am

Rent is due and even though the eviction extension was declared its not as it appears and a lot of people are in danger of losing their homes or being houseless.
